(In the background you hear teacups clinking, women giggling and some lame music)

VOICE OVER: It's just five women getting together for a leisurely Friday evening ...

(You hear a sudden scratch of the record needle as the music grinds to a halt and in its place you hear some hard, adrenaline-thumping music)

VOICE OVER: Wrong! This ain't no coupon-clippin', coffee-clutchin', recipe-exchangin' group of girly girls. It's an all-out, smash mouth, taken-it-to-the-hoop assault team. The women of the WNBA Orlando Miracle are in the paint and in your face and out to prove there ain't nothin' wrong with throwing like a girl! For the breakdown on every breakaway, lay-up and pick and roll, turn to The Orlando Sentinel Sports section. With game stats, player profiles and league coverage, no one knows more about women's basketball.
